

ASSESSING YOUR COLLEGE OPTIONS

How to make the right decision

WEIGHT CAREER CHOICES

Make the right decision

Make sure you are choosing a school based on a degree you want. Assess which programs are offered at the colleges you are looking at as well as the majors and minors included

BE REALISTIC

Admissions & Finances

in regards to admissions, make sure your current high school transcript and extracurricular activities can be viewed in a positive light by the schools you are applying to. When it comes to finances, make sure to apply for scholarships, fill out your FAFSA, and make a decision that makes the most sense financially. th

CAMPUS TOURS

Get a glimpse of campus life

Most undergrad experiences last 4 years, so you want to make sure you feel at home whenever you are on campus. Sign up for a tour of the schools you are applying to, as they can be a huge help and often times are done by students who can answer any questions you might have during the tour.

ASK FOR HELP

Don't be afraid

The college process can be an intimidating prospect. so make sure to reach out to your family and friends to help you out. They know who you are as a person and can help narrow down your choices and help talk out your decision to one that makes sense.

VISUALIZE YOUR FUTURE

Looking forward to sucess

At the end of the day, college is just another stepping stone to your future, so make sure that whatever path you take, to work hard and be determined, and end your college search on a positive note while looking forward to attending.

